

HOME RULERS DRAW THE COLOR LINE

SAY THE DELEGATE MUST BE A HAWAIIAN

THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NATIVE PARTY HOLD THEIR TERRITORIAL GATHERING FOR THE NOMINATION OF A DELEGATE TO CONGRESS, FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATURE AND FOR COUNTY OFFICERS.—C. NOTLEY PRESIDES.

The most striking feature of the Home Rule platform which was read to the convention today was a clause providing that only an Hawaiian be elected as a Delegate to Congress. It was stated in the platform that the election of a white man to that office would seriously effect the party.

From the expressions of approval heard on all sides when the clause was read it is evident that the party is unanimous on that one point. The party leaders expressed themselves before the convention opened that only a Hawaiian would receive their support for the office of Delegate to Washington.

The Home Rule Territorial Convention met this morning at 10 o'clock in the Kahiliulani dance hall for the purpose of nominating their candidates for the County offices, the legislative offices and a candidate for the Delegateship to Congress.

YOUNG BUYS OUT THE ELITE

ALEXANDER YOUNG BOUGHT THE ELITE ICE CREAM PARLORS FOR $5500 AT AUCTION—WILL OPEN A RESTAURANT OF HIS OWN IN THE CORNER STORE NOW OCCUPIED BY THE PORTER FURNITURE COMPANY.

Alexander Young bought the Elite Ice Cream Parlors, formerly owned by Hart & Co., this morning at auction. The price paid was $5500.

At 10 o'clock the sale opened under the auspices of J. F. Morgan. There were only two bidders, Alexander Young and S. W. Smith. Smith bid as high as $5000 and the place was knocked down to Young for $5500. Only a small crowd was present and there was little interest shown.

Young intends to open a restaurant of his own in the Young Building quarters being vacated by the Porter Furniture Company. The restaurant is to be run at popular prices and is expected to catch some of the hotel guests' trade.

The price of sale of the Elite, $5500, is considered cheap, for the property turned over including the fixtures.

KALAUPAPA UNCOMPLAINING

PINKHAM FINDS SETTLEMENT IN UNPRECEDENTED CONDITION OF QUIETNESS.

President Pinkham has returned from a ten days' visit to the Leper Settlement, and reports finding things in remarkably satisfactory condition. There was not a single complaint made to him, says the president of the board of health. This is the first time, it is said, that an official of the Board of Health ever visited the settlement without having to listen to a long list of kicks about all sorts of matters.

The settlement appears to be going along very harmoniously now, and the many patients express themselves as satisfied with the provision made for them. "One old man told me that he used to wish that he could die," said Pinkham, "but that now he was happy and content."

J. D. McVeigh, superintendent of the settlement, came with Pinkham, on a visit to Honolulu.

NEW BOARD

The new Board of Education meets this afternoon at 3:30. Mrs. J. M. Dowsett and Frank Dodge, new members, will take their seats for the first time. There will be a discussion of plans for the board's work, and in the near future the committee will be reorganized.

CAR COLLISION LAST NIGHT.

Two cars on Beretania street collided near the Hawaiian hotel last night shortly after 9 o'clock. They were trying to pass each other at the switch but one car was started toward the main track too soon as the car on the main track had not cleared the switch. The cars' foot rails were smashed and other damage done but nobody was severely injured. A Chinese passenger sustained some slight cuts about the head. The accident resulted in tying up the system for about half an hour.

MARN YOUNG HIS CRIME AND HIS CONFESSIONS

KOREAN STICKS TO HIS REPORTS OF CRUEL TREATMENT IN JAIL, BUT JUDGE ROBINSON HOLDS THAT IT HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH THE PROCEEDING IN WHICH IT WAS BROUGHT—HIS VARIOUS CONFESSIONS.

Y. Marn Young's case came before Judge Robinson at nine thirty this morning, but the judge declined to listen to any affidavits or arguments about alleged cruelty to him in prison. The affidavits, which were filed as a basis of a motion to reduce bail, had nothing to do with such a motion, the judge said, and he declined to allow Attorney Lightfoot to talk. The latter was quite evidently primed with eloquence about prison cruelty and the Rights of Man, but the judge said that prison cruelty had nothing to do with a motion to reduce the bail of a man in Oahu jail.

Young was questioned as to his ability to produce bail, and said he thought he could raise a hundred dollars. The bail as fixed by De Bolt, on a charge of assault to murder, was $1000. In view of two prisoners' poverty, Robinson ordered it reduced to $500. Young arrived in court in custody of High Sheriff Henry and is still in his custody, and has been for some time.

When seen in the sheriff's office Young, in pigeon English, repeated his accusations against Deputy Sheriff Vida. Young was originally indicted for assault with a weapon, and agreed to plead guilty. Then he withdrew his plea and wanted to stand trial. The Attorney General's department would not stand for this, and no one pressed

BRUTAL DEED ON THE SEA

HOW THE JAPANESE CREW OF THE SCHOONER ATLAS TREATED A STOWAWAY WHO RECEIVED SEVERE INJURIES ON THE HIGH SEAS—LEFT HIM TO SUFFER FOR FOUR HOURS AND THEN THREW HIM OVERBOARD.

When a Japanese stowaway on board the ship Atlas injured himself by a fall and lay groaning in the vessel's hold, the order of the boatswain, also a Japanese, was to "throw him overboard," according to the testimony of witnesses before United States Commissioner Maling this morning. The injured man was found groaning with pain at about eight o'clock on the evening of July 11. At ten minutes past midnight he was thrown into the sea. Whether he was alive or dead is what District Attorney Breckons is seeking to find out. His effects including, according to one report, about $300 in cash, disappeared.

The facts were brought out this morning in a proceeding against Captain Amherman, master of the ship, though the captain is in no way mixed up in the cruel treatment of the deceased Jap. In fact it is the captain's ignorance of the whole transaction that caused his arrest, for the charge placed against him was that of failing to record in the log of the vessel, the death of a person on board. The case promises some sensational developments and created a lot of excitement among the crew and other Japs. Acting Consul Matsubara was present this morning during the hearing.
